Here are the details of your arranged overdraft

Dear Mr R Baptie & Miss J G Dolendo

We're pleased to include the key terms of the arranged overdraft on your FlexAccount. They're as follows:

- Your arranged overdraft limit: £250
- Arranged overdraft interest rate: 34.049% per year un compounded (variable). Because we charge interest on interest, this gives a rate of 39.9% per year compounded (variable). See the Understanding Overdrafts leaflet enclosed to find out about the difference between these two rates.
- Total charge for credit: £22.08
This figure is just an example, and you'll only be charged if you use your arranged overdraft. You'll find details of how we've calculated this example at the back of this letter.

There's no fixed or minimum length of time for your agreement. Please bear in mind you'll need to be able to pay the amount you owe, in part or in full, at any time if we ask you to.

Your Terms and Conditions

Your arranged overdraft agreement is covered by the existing Nationwide General Current Account Terms and Conditions. If you'd like another copy, you can download one at nationwide.co.uk in the current account section of the Support pages, or pop into branch to pick up a copy.

Please read the rest of the terms of your agreement on the back of this letter.

We're here if you need us

If you have any questions, we'll be happy to help – either send a secure message on the Internet Bank (if you're registered). Or if you'd rather speak to someone in person, visit us in branch.

Thank you for being a member.
